

The Pioneer

1966

1966 Pioneer

*Huguenot Academy
Powhatan, Virginia*

"Look not mournfully into the Past. It comes not back again. Wisely improve the Present. It is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy Future, without fear, and with a manly heart."

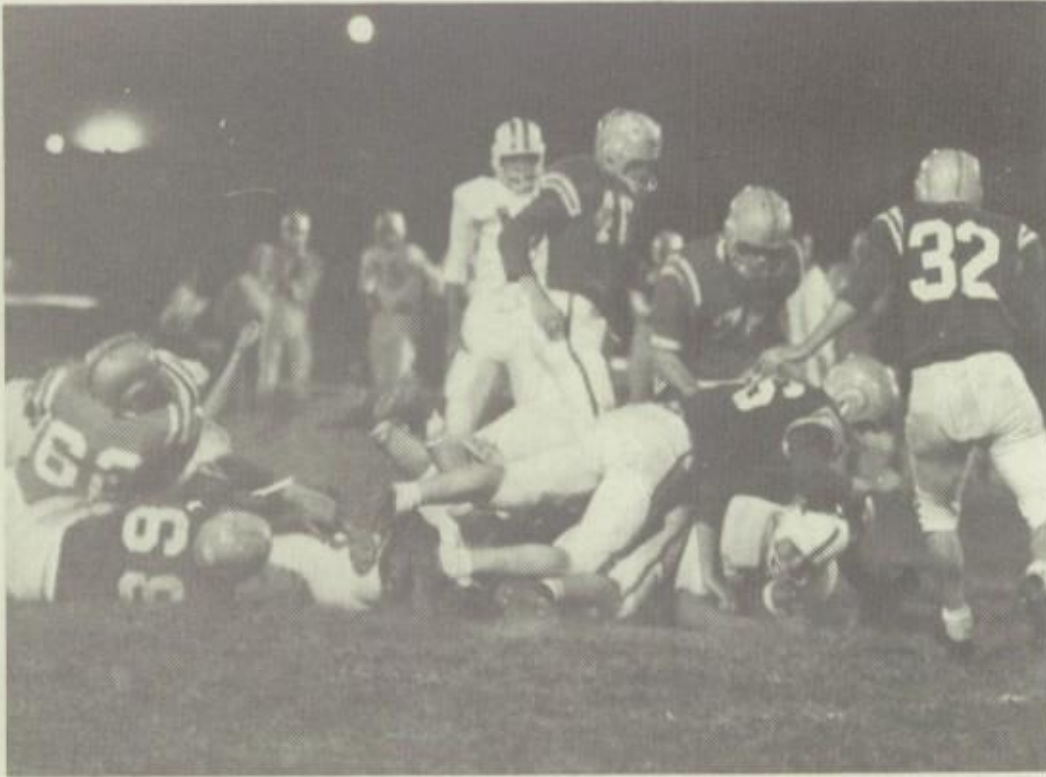

With these immortal words of the poet Longfellow, we the 1966 graduating class of Huguenot Academy offer you this "Pioneer".

As students, we cannot be sheltered forever; we must grow and develop. We must reach out and grasp the challenge of life; for, in our souls and minds we hold the key to success. Will we, as students of the Huguenot Academy, advantageously utilize these wondrous blessings that have been bestowed upon us? We must. Huguenot Academy is giving us the strength so that we may not remain sheltered forever; we shall grow and develop. The Almighty is giving our school the power to rise above our disbelievers; out of the reach of dangers, out of the clutch of perils. Taller and taller we are growing -- a symbol of strength and perfection.

May God forever bless us and may we always flourish.

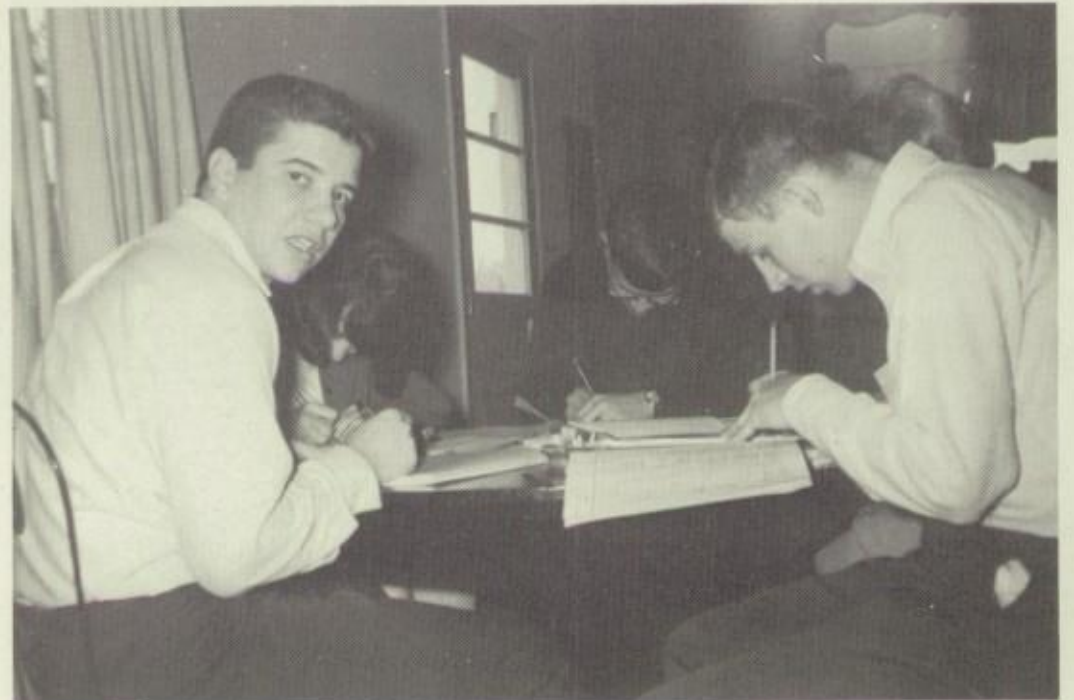

Paula Banton, Editor

Throughout the year...

The spirit of autumn at Huguenot Academy is exemplified by its fall sport -- football. The excess energy acquired during the summer is now directed to the anticipation and challenge of a new school term here at Huguenot Academy.

With the completion of fall sports and the beginning of winter, students' minds turn back to the task at hand -- study. The preparation of examinations and term projects keeps students busy for many hours.

With the arrival of spring the end of another school term is fast approaching; the students focus their attention on summer and the vacation that awaits them.

William D. Pleasants

Dedication

William D. Pleasants is the true inspiration for every Senior Class at Huguenot Academy, whether he is guiding us through our Government course or making us behave in Florida.

This is his third year at the Academy as head of the History and Government Departments. With each passing year he gains more experience and understanding which makes him so valuable to his students.

To the Seniors he is our guiding light throughout the year, one in which we will never forget as he leads us through the final steps of graduation.

We all love you, "Willy" and always remain your sweet, wonderful self!

Our lovable "Willy" attracts admirers of all ages.

Mr. Pleasants demonstrates the true spirit of Huguenot Academy through his enthusiastic personality.

DOUGLAS G. PALMORE

Principal Lower School

Mrs. Lillian T. West is a true example of the pioneer spirit at Huguenot Academy, for she was the first teacher when the Academy had its beginning in 1959.

Mrs. West possesses a rare quality of understanding and guidance towards her students which is truly exemplified in her warm personality.

Huguenot Academy is indeed very fortunate to boast of a principal like Mrs. West. Her influence over the students is quite dominant as she prepares them for their acceleration into the Upper School.

Mrs. West's experience in teaching is quite apparent by her excellent record and she shall continue to shine brightly at Huguenot Academy.

Headmaster Upper School

New to Huguenot Academy this year is Douglas G. Palmore who has successfully completed his first year as Headmaster.

Mr. Palmore received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Richmond and his Master of Education from the College of William and Mary.

Education is not a new experience for Mr. Palmore for he has taught in Tokyo, Japan at the United States Armed Forces Institute. Mr. Palmore also taught in Henrico County, Virginia for five years prior to his appointment here at Huguenot.

Huguenot Academy is very proud of their Headmaster and his impressive record of achievement in education. Earlier this year he was the recipient of the Outstanding Young Educator Award.

We sincerely hope his stay at Huguenot Academy is a long and rewarding one.

of our lives.

Dr. William T. Muse delivering our inspirational Commencement Address.

Recipients of Awards were James Simpson, Valedictorian; Rebecca Vimpeny, Salutatorian; Barbara Frady and Kenneth Hatcher received the Citizenship Awards.

Behind The Scenes At Huguenot

"Who's got egg-salad for lunch?"

"How about a short-cut through Red Lane Road?"

"I'll just use my Karate hold on you, Hatcher, and we'll see if you ever skip class again!"

"Do you think we'll make PLAYBOY?"

"SO what if I am a teacher, the Board will never know!"

More Merriment!

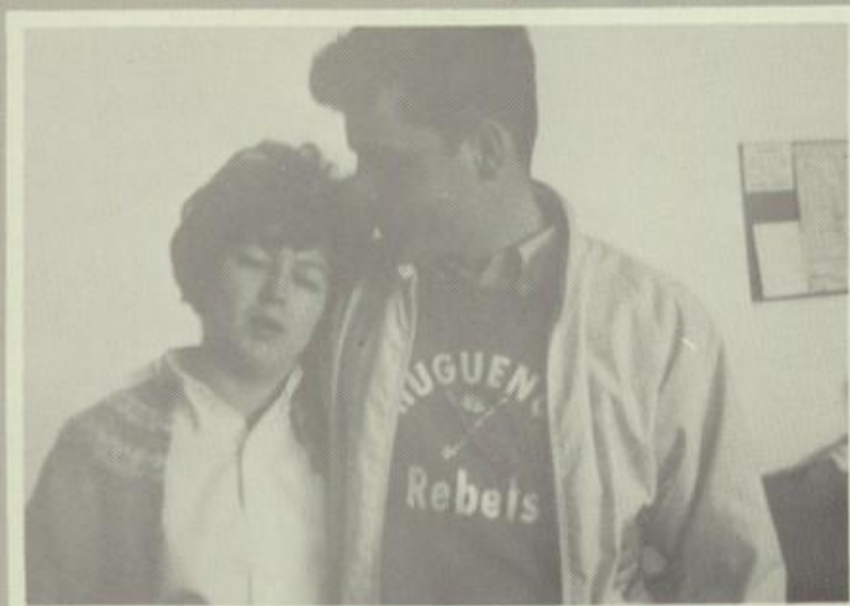

"I thought child-labor was prohibited!"

"Jody, you know this isn't the Time or Place!"

"If we hurry we can get some before Mr. Pleasants comes!"

"You shouldn't have stayed up with the chickens so long last night!"

"I hope it comes down before the game's over!"

The Fun Continues!

"HOW SWEET IT IS!"

"Mrs. Sadler, have you heard the one about the young farm girl and . . ."

"Would you believe the nerve of those Seniors -- trying to sell that rotten candy for 10¢!"

"What I lack in brains, I make up in brawn."

*We Swing
Onward!*

"Oh, Johnny, you're such a big hunk of man!"

"If we hurry we can make it to Amelia before intermission!"

Chubby Jim Blandford signs autographs at basketball tournament in Wakefield, Virginia.

"Of course I like chicken sandwiches, most everyone at Huguenot does!"

We are joined together in spirit and the expectations of our futures.

In their hearts and minds there burns a childlike intensity of joy.

Activities

Homecoming

The excitement of the football game between Huguenot and York Academies was at its height.

At half-time the Queen was selected from Candidates Jean Graham, Paula Banton, Rebecca Vimpeny, and Veronica Downs.

After the game the Student Body anticipated the festivities of the Homecoming Dance. Queen Jean Graham and Coach Wayman Everly lead the figure which was composed of Queen Candidates, Class Princesses, Cheerleaders, and Football Players.

The "Slightly Fabulous Checkmates" provided the music which added to the success of a marvelous evening!

Jean Graham reigns as 1966 Homecoming Queen of Huguenot Academy.

Coach and Jean "shake-it-up" during the Homecoming figure!

Jean beams radiantly as she is crowned by the Rebel Football Co-Captains, Marvin Nuckols and Doug Bradbury.

The Winter Carnival

The Winter Carnival is an annual dance sponsored by the Senior Class of Huguenot Academy. Each class selects two candidates for queen, with the exception of the Senior Class which selects only one.

This year's candidates were: Eighth Grade, Susan Younce and Kay Frame; Freshman Class, Pam Dawson and Debby Maxey; Sophomore Class, Nancy Bowlin and Carolyn Morris; Junior Class, Jennifer Goodwyn and Gloria Harris; and Senior Class, Jean Graham.

Gloria Harris was crowned 1967 Snow Queen by Paula Banton, who was 1966 Snow Queen. The crowning was held at the intermission of the Winter Carnival and the music for the gala evening was provided by "The Moonshiners".

The Sweetheart Dance

The Sweetheart Dance is held in February of each school year. It is sponsored in conjunction with the Future Homemakers of America Club and the Industrial Arts Club.

The Future Homemakers nominate the members from Industrial Arts as king candidates, and in turn, the members from Industrial Arts nominate the members for queen candidates from the Future Homemakers Club.

The candidates for king and queen this year were: Brenda Wooldridge, Nancy Bowlin, Charlotte Wooldridge, Earlene Walton, Patricia Dobbins, Wallace Worsham, Wayne Reams, Douglas Bradbury, Glenn Dunn, and John B. Jones.

This year's King and Queen were Douglas Bradbury and Nancy Bowlin. They were crowned by Sandra Whitaker and Roy L. Chipps who are the Club's Sponsors. "The Emports" of Midlothian entertained with their enjoyable music.

Queen Sandra Mead and King Tony Coleman reign in tropical splendor.

Hawaiian Sunset

Delicacies are graciously served by our Hawaiian hostesses.

Last minute preparations are made as the Seniors anxiously await the memorable figure.

Juniors and Seniors swing to the boss sound of "The Chasers."

The S.C.O. has several basic objectives:

To develop good school citizenship,

To promote good relationships between students and faculty, and between school and community,

To develop and maintain good school spirit,

To promote the general welfare of the school.

These objectives have been accomplished through the various activities sponsored by the organization, such as Homecoming, White Christmas, the March of Dimes Drive, the school newspaper, "The Sabre", and the Awards Assembly.
